iF4R

Secure, hold, prop - the compact iF4R is easy to transport and always keeps your hands free when you need them. This rechargeable construction spotlight with five brightness levels can be fully adjusted to your needs: with the magnet, flexible base or handle you have the light right where you need it. Thanks to the integrated power bank feature, the iF4R not only supplies up to 15 hours of light, but also power for your mobile device.
